With Additional Assessments

LANCASTER COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA, TAX LISTS

By Dr. Albert H. Gerberich, Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa.

(Copyright by National Genealogical Society, 1933)

From the erection of Lancaster Co. Pa. until 1730 the complete assessment lists were copied by the late Dr. Gilbert Cope of West Chester and are on file at the Gen. Soc. of Pa. in Philadelphia. From 1771 to 1786 they are printed in the Pa. Archives, Series III. That leaves a gap of about 40 yrs. in the middle of the 18th Century, and, so far as I know, the tax records of these years have never been published. I have as yet found no assessment records prior to 1751 at the Lancaster Court House, but am continuing the search.

These lists should be of much importance to genealogists in many ways. One is the fact that a great wave of migration into Va. from Pa. began during 1750s & grew stronger during the 1760s (also extending into the West—G. M. B.). The people who want to trace their ancestors in Pa. have until now had no tax lists of the time of this migration to help them, as the Penna. Archives begin with 1771 for Lancaster Co.

NOTE: "Salisbury township records are spelled Salsbury and, due to the lucky fact that it was confused with Sadsbury I found it among the lists for the latter township, the only old list from Salisbury I could discover. I have, as yet discovered no old tax lists for the following townships which were in existence in the 1750s: Brecknock, Carnarvon, Cocalico, Colerain, Lancaster, Little Britain & Martic. If I could find these we would have the 1751 assessments of Lancaster Co. Pa. virtually complete. I doubt if they will ever turn up. There are no lists from the townships which have been lost to Dauphin and Lebanon Counties." A. H. G.

Albert H. Gerberich was born 2-23-1898 at Williamstown, Pa. and received A.B. Dickinson, 1918; A.M., U. of Pa., 1926; Ph.D., Johns Hopkins, 1932. He served as radio electrician in the U. S. Navy during the World War; American consul in Puerto Cortes (Honduras), Bremerhaven (Germany) and Maracaibo (Venezuela) from 1919 to 1925; teaching since 1925—and at Dickinson since 1928, teaching Spanish and German.

Gaius Marcus Brumbaugh, M.S., M.D., Litt. D., is actively engaged in the practice of medicine. He has edited the National Genealogical Society Quarterly since April, 1917, and has published some results of his research in historical and genealogical volumes.

Note: The material concerning Brecknock, 1756 and Caernarvon, 1757, Assessments were discovered and added as this index is being prepared. It is thought that the Lancaster city Assessments may yet be discovered. Dr. Gerberich has done a very important work in persisting in this search of these long lost records. G. M. B.

N. G. S. Quarterly, September, 1931 pp. 49-54, ($1.00), contains: "Tax List of Mount Pleasant Township, Westmoreland Co., Pa. September, 1785."

N. G. S. Quarterly, June, 1932, pp 33-52, ($1.50), contains: "Berkeley County, Va. Tax Lists for 1780" (now W. Va.)

INDEX*

The reader should remember that many of these names are spelled as they sounded to the German speaking and writing assessors, or as spoken by the German speaking citizens. Both Dr. Gerberich, in his wide familiarity with the locality and with German, and also the maker of this index, have retained the original spellings. The numbers in parenthesis "(3)" etc. indicate the number of times the name appears upon the given page. G. M. B.
